

Safety Field Technicians Job Openings:

SOTARIS, LLP a safety consulting and compliance company based in Cleveland, Ohio area is looking to fill Safety Field Technician Positions.

Primary job function will be to provide ongoing Safety Audits, Facility Identification Surveys, Lockout Procedure data gathering services, and other on-site safety services to existing and future Sotaris customers.

Must be able to climb ladders and work at heights.

Additionally travel is required to client locations based on project need. This travel requirement will not exceed 3 weeks per month. All business related travel expenses will be reimbursed by Sotaris.

Use of personal vehicle will be required for business use and mileage will be reimbursed by Sotaris at the standard prevailing IRS mileage rate.

There is also be a requirement to perform some of the work activities from a home office environment to prepare reports and other documents.

Salary and benefits will be commensurate with experience. Please send resumes to hr@sotaris.com